(16th edition) pdf, 30 pages. Advertisers spent about $1.1 billion on Google and Facebook in the first quarter of 2015, according to eMarketer estimates, not including search engine optimization and content purchasing. That is down 15% and 5% from Q1 2014, respectively, and the industry also spent about $1.0 billion more on Google and Facebook advertising in the second quarter of 2015 than in the first quarter of 2014. EMarketer expects Google and Facebook spend to increase from $8.7 billion in the first quarter to $8.9 billion in the second quarter and $9.2 billion in the third quarter. Advertisers' spending on Google and Facebook would be about the same in the fourth quarter as in the third quarter, eMarketer said. Google and Facebook spending has been flattening in the last few years, with ad spending at Google declining about 5% from a peak in Q3 2012 and Facebook ads also declining around 15% between Q2 2012 and Q2 2013, eMarketer says. Advertisers are now spending more on Google and Facebook than they did on search engine optimization (SEO) and content purchasing (CP) in Q1 2013, eMarketer said. EMarketer's research director with analytics, SEO, social and mobile, Jason Miller, said in the report that, while spending on these services by advertisers is down, it is still at a "multi-year high." "After years of spending flat

Android app that I created, and I'd like to make it so that when a user clicks "Cancel", the app terminates. All I could find is that you can kill a process from another process (from ActivityManager), but that would never work for me because my app is not in the foreground. How can I do that? A: Use `java.lang.Process.exit`

Q: Laravel (5.5) - An exception occurred while executing 'INSERT INTO `relations` ... : (2222, "Column'relations.relation_id' cannot be null") I'm making a simple relationship in Laravel 5.5 with many-to-many. The structure of my relationships table is relations	relations_table_id	relation_id	relations_table_type	relations_id	relations_table_name	relations_table_value relations	table_id	table_name	table_value

In the controller, I save the relationship in the
