I'm writing a scene where a character is describing some fake wrestling moves from one of his competitors, and I'm trying to find a word to describe his technique for the move. I can think of a few word-choices like fakes, decoys, put-ons, techniques, and tricks, but I'm not sure if any of them would be exactly what I want (all of them seem to be things that are used in wrestling, not the whole of the sport). The issue for Australia has been largely policy-wonk politics: Either the Coalition wants to end the carbon tax, has already done so by implementing Direct Action and other policy-free
