Post navigation "Everything I do is my duty, my vocation, my talent, my passion, my religion." -Woody Allen I am a Puerto Rican that was born and raised in PR living in Boston for almost 17 years now. I've had many occupations in my time working in sales, consulting, managing a small business, a teaching assistant, a caregiver, a nurse, an administrator, a bus driver, an assistant chef in a restaurant, and the list goes on. I went to college in the U.S. and received a BS in Business Administration. Now, I am preparing to go back to school to get my Masters in Human Resources. I am a big fan of sports and music as well. I love sports especially baseball and basketball. I also love music especially old school rap and latin jazz. I have 2 kids, a daughter about to turn 4 and my son who is 5 months old. My daughter and I have been to many places in the world together and will go back to Puerto Rico as a family. My son I will go to a few places but not to Puerto Rico just yet. He is the only child that I have and he is the apple of my eye! I search this site, I've come to find that people who are members of it know where all the good stuff is. I'm still trying to figure out how I am doing this. I'd really like it if you'd share that to me, ya know? This goes out to those who have been asked to "stop being so mean to me," "get out of my face," "shut the F up," "not let me come to graduation," "stay off of my bike," "get out of my face," "not let me come to the party," "get out of my face," "shut the F up," "not let me come to the party," "get out of my face," "shut the F up," "don't let me come to the party," and "stop being so mean to me." I'm so much smaller than you are. I'm just a little mouse sitting here on my bottom. I like to run and play but my legs get tired and i can't go far. when i come home, my mom just leaves me here in my cage. I get fed every morning when she c6a93da74d
